Using the Interlibrary loan service through the Jefferson County Library District

The Jefferson County Library follows the American Library Association Interlibrary Loan Code for the United States. We will try to obtain your item in a timely manner, and at no charge to you. If there is a charge on the item, we will ask you about the charge before requesting it from another library.

Patrons who wish to use this service must have a library card from Jefferson County in good standing. The Interlibrary Loan department will search for the item you are requesting from a library system outside of our local catalogs and collections. Copies of journal articles may also be obtained from university libraries, usually at no charge.

The interlibrary loan service is a privilege to our library patrons as well as the library, and as such, we honor due dates and careful handling of materials very closely. If you decide to use the service, please follow the guidelines carefully.

Using the online Lnet and Ask a Librarian service

Oregon has a wonderful online service called "Lnet" (soon to be renamed Answerland). To use this service, click on the following url:
